Andy,

I do not know who the supplier is for the discs nor could I ethically supply you with this information. This information would have to come from a conversation between you and Tony Jacino.

At my direction and beckoning Tony has made a major financial commitment to inventories to alleviate the problems ITW has been experiencing. There have also been internal changes to address problems. I believe they could have caught up on this quicker if not for the port issue that the country has been experiencing. I think this week's shipments demonstrates some light at the end of the tunnel and I do believe they are on their way to becoming a dependable vendor (they did have a long prior track record as a dependable vendor). I would suggest at this point by the time you decide on a change you would only be further behind on this situation. As with your initial phone call I asked that you give this 2 weeks.

They have made significant impact this first week. I ask that you be patient one more week and see where they are at.

Best,

Paul

Paul,
I think we would be better off handling this another way. If Tony has rights to disc, we could work out compensation. Andy

Tony,

This was the only email I could find. you need to check your files around this time from me.

This should be good though.

Paul,

Team is not interested in pursuing a royalty agreement right now.

Seems like recent performance has relieved some concerns.

Thanks.
